excellent taverna on the western edge of the harbour area chania. the lamb slept with the bone, divine in its simpleness. the potatoes that cleaned their juices were also delish. the otopus was also soft, although we were not fan of the carved wild beans. the greens were solid, just like the service was. great value and quiet ambiente makes this place stand out. A very nice hidden tavern with a lot of dishes and a great wine variety. The staff was very friendly and polite. The three stars go for the prices as they were a little pricey for the quantity.
