Lovely location in Boyana, very close UNESCO site of Boyana church. Outside seating in garden. Grandmother's salad (tomatoes, cheese, ljutenica, red onions) was very tasty paired with the baguette (which was more like a pide bread) discreetly flavoured with sharena sol. The smoked cheese with blueberry jam was a huge portion for 1 person. Murat had the lamb with a pleasant surprise of a rice with liver side dish (dr... read more. What User doesn't like about Boyansko Hanche:

My friends and I received a really unpleasant service and they were suggested a fish which turned out to be 70 euro per piece. This price was way out of proportion and not at all communicated properly on the menu. The server shouted at my friends when they pointed out some mistakes on the menu. The server was offensive to my friends. It really wasn't nice so definitely suggest dining somewhere else after the hike read more.
