It was a big disappointment, we expected much more. We have been to a much more cultured similar place in the capital, and we have returned there several times. We chose it as a destination because it announced a full repertoire for the weekend, and we wanted to taste it. By the time we got there, only the bistro part was open, due to an event, with a limited offer. For the price, the food should have been much, much... read more.
