this place was amazing from eating to hospitality. edmont was really friendly and the entire staff was friendly. the place was clean, friendly and even the bathrooms were extremely clean. everyone at the place made us welcome and had a smile on their faces. I recommend this place and is right in front of the harbour before they drive a ferry or cruise. read more. What User doesn't like about Porto Grill:

It's a shame because this 2 starts don't apply to the staff, even though it didn't start well. We ordered 3 dishes. A salad which was a plate of hard bread with few tomato and feta cheese, a chicken gylos where if you find some chicken in it, you would be the luckiest person in the world, and the backlava which was the hardest one we have ever tried. So if there's something else, I would try another place. read more. The extensive diversity of coffee and tea specialties makes a visit to Porto Grill even more worthwhile, Here, the meat is freshly grilled on an open flame.
