What User likes about To Κύμα:

we were on a cruise ship and decided to go a few miles alone to meet a local food business. we wandered down to the beach and the owner of this taverne offered us some of the fresh fish he would cook for us. we decided to take a table and we have a cheap liter surprisingly good white wine. he spoke to us in the grilled seafood leaf. it was amazing! I hate sardines, but he brought us sardines with olive oil with our w... read more. The restaurant and its rooms are wheelchair accessible and thus reachable with a wheelchair or physical disabilities, and there is free WLAN. If the weather are right, you can also have something to eat outside. What User doesn't like about

To Κύμα:

Seaside restaurant in Katakolo. Several options on the menu, but when they are busy, they forget you and there is no one at the reception, so sit somewhere, if you don't speak you might have to wait a long time (we got up and left). The tables are a bit crowded and there is a smell of frying pan in the air. Reasonable prices. *I had another review but this year they lost it in terms of service. read more. The To Κύμα from Amaliada dishes out various delicious seafood courses, the place offers also meals from the European environment. Greek delicacies like Gyros and Souvlaki with matching sides are also offered in the restaurant, You can also unwind at the bar with a freshly tapped beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks.
