What David S likes about Legran: As a visiting foreigner I had yet to experience the wonder of Russian Borsh (soup). It came on a serving platter with the bowls for the soup and the sour cream built in. So no bowls sliding around! The beetroot soup came with smoked meat, and was accompanied with raw garlic, and slices of smoked pork fat, and a shot glass of what I would call grappa but must have a Russian equivalent. It was all wonderful! The gnocch... read more. The large diversity of coffee and tea specialties makes a visit to Legran even more worthwhile.
