What User likes about Falafel Koy: I love coming back to this little family run business because the falafel, the baba ganoush and the hummus never disappoint! Always fresh, crispy and full of flavor. The restaurant is just a few meters off the main shopping street Istiklal, so it's very easy to find, and it's never too crowded, so you can find a spot to sit down (tables are upstairs). The place is run by a Syrian family who had to start a new life in... read more. In nice weather you can even have something in the outdoor area. What Gurls O doesn't like about Falafel Koy: One important factor to consider is the significant waiting time to get a simple sandwich. Unfortunately, the wait is not justified as the sandwich, a basic falafel, doesn't meet expectations. Waiting around 1 hour for just three falafel sandwiches and a salad is quite frustrating, especially when you visit such a restaurant during lunchtime, expecting quick service. However, that is not the case here. If you choose... read more.
