I wandered around Marmaris for maybe an hour trying to find where to go and looked at 2-3 places on the net and finally came here. If you are going to eat home-cooked food, I can definitely say this is the place. What I ate was very good. Prices are also affordable. It was like a small Anatolian town restaurant rather than a holiday destination. 2023 forest kebab soup rice rice pudding was 200 TL read more. Marmaris Kirtil Ev Yemekleri Döner Kebap Salonu:

I can't say anything about the taste of the food, it looked clean and edible, but it's a shame that they asked for the full price for the orders we placed, even though we asked if we could make a variety and ask for less of everything, and they said yes, you can. I wanted to taste 3-4 types, at least, instead of 2 bowls of food, and the cashier gave me exactly that. Saying that they did it is disrespectful to the cus... read more.
